

All Around Alora Observer

The oldest newspaper in Alora and the clear choice for your news!

© Speechy Musings

Saturday, January 3rd, 2014

Alora Marathon Next Saturday

The Alora annual marathon will occur on Saturday, January 10th. Beware of arrows as they mark where runners are running. Cars are not allowed on the course. If you are participating in the marathon, come early for an asparagus and corn breakfast. If it storms or there is a tornado, stay together near the army building near the start of the course. The marathon will end with fireworks around 8:30.

New Sheriff of Alora

Carl Elver is an original resident of Alora and will be the new sheriff starting in March. He will be sworn in on March 3rd. His biggest concern is the shortage of doctors and teachers in Alora. Elver said, "Together, we can turn Alora around and we can all learn how to bring Alora back to it's former glory!" Elver will be at the marathon in the morning selling warm buttered popcorn for $7. Come say hi!

Caring Days Dinner Fundraiser

Caring Days, an Alora charity, will be having it's yearly fundraiser in February. Please set your alarm and arrive early. The doors will close after dark. This year, the fundraiser will support several weird things including dogs that bark too much and fireman from Ireland. Dinner will be $40 for an entire family. What a bargain! There will be a raffle for sapphires, a parachute, and a car.